I, Thomas a native of Bangalore was a student of the central College Bangalore for the past 6 years and matriculated there in 1880 Having no means to continue further my studies for the F A Examination I resolved to attend the Civil Engineering School at Bangalore as a free student rather than idle away my time I tried my utmost last year to get a scholarship in the Civil Engineering School but could not succeed as there happened to be so few boys taken to form a new class As this is the time for the nomination of the Scholarship students I most respectfully beg that your honor will be so kind as to recommend me for a scholarship in the Civil

Engineering

Engineering School and thus enable me to prosecute my Studies there in order that I may complete the course Commencing
